

NJCACOA Working for YOU!

NJ State Conservation Officer Shannon Maritak addresses NJCACOA members about laws and regulations pertaining to wildlife and exotic animals. The presentation took place at the Central Region Meeting on May 18 in Marlboro Township.

Central Region Director Anthony Lena of Marlboro Township is shown with NJ State Conservation Officer Shannon Maritak as they discuss confiscated evidence of wildlife violations.

Diane Nickerson, of the New Jersey Wildlife Rehabilitators Association and NJCACOA Executive Board after an informative presentation on "Wildlife and the Animal Control Officer" at our NJ State Meeting in Marlboro on May 8, 2013.

Central Region Director Anthony Lena of Marlboro Township is shown with Officer Thomas Rada of Piscataway Township receiving a Certificate of Appreciation from the NJCACOA honoring his many years of service and 23 years of membership in the association.